L'amour, both tender and ludicrous, dominates the lives of The Women opening tonight at the Forest Theater. Clare Boothe's sophisticated comedy takes place in New York and Reno and concerns the adventures and misadventures of the idle female with hair pulling and husband stealing the order of the evening. This scene shows Nancy Stover as Crystal, in the bathtub, talking to Pamela Beales as Little Mary and Betty Fowlston as the malignant Sylvia. The Women plays for two weekends only.

Evening School Opens With Old Favorites, And New Writing Class

The Carmel Adult School upon its re-opening next Monday evening will again offer a fine program of cultural and educational subjects selected to meet the needs and desires of the people in the Carmel area.

A printed schedule of classes is being mailed to Carmel and vicinity boxholders. It includes classes in Arts and Crafts, Business, Citizenship Training, Driver Education, Family Life Education, Foreign Languages, Music, Literature, Creative Writing, and Physical Education.

A fee of one dollar ($1.00) per class with the exception of Citizenship Training will be charged. Additional fees will be collected for classes which require special supplies or equipment.

Some classes must be limited in size and those who register first will be given preference.

The opening date of a Creative Writing class will be announced later. A pre-registration is now being taken for this class. Mrs. Catherine Christopher, an English and Journalism major from Mt. St. Vincents College in New York, authoress of magazine articles, stories, humor, verse, song lyrics and creative radio and television scripts, will be the teacher.

Further information may be had by visiting the principal at the Carmel Adult School office at Sunset School Monday through Thursday evenings, or by phoning 7-6483 between 11:00 and 3:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Editor's Column

Chain Reaction Catastrophe

The question everybody is asking this week is, why the dollar? Why do we have to pay a dollar all of a sudden to go to night school? If night school is in the red, what good would a dollar do? If it isn't in the red, why the dollar?

I asked a school board member and the school board member said the explanation is Monterey.

Monterey has decided, for reasons nobody has yet been able to interpret, that it would charge $1.00 per class for adult school. Our school board member says it will be a nuisance to collect and there'll be no profit in it, but we can't have all Monterey pouring over the hill to get a free education. So, the board member says, that's why the dollar here, and he (or she as the case may be) hopes it won't cripple adult education in Carmel.

That started us to worrying, too, because if a dollar fee is going to wreck night school, the catastrophe won't stop there. Nature being what it is, intellectuals will gather with intellectuals, come what may. If they are fee-ed out of night school, they'll go to the library and read the magazines. And this is going to be expensive for the taxpayers.

I was in the library last night and counted the usual quorum of

Ceremony Sunday For Formal Opening Of New Wayfarer Youth Building

The doors to the new Youth Building of the Church of the Wayfarer will swing open on Sunday afternoon at the conclusion of a special program at 4:00 o'clock. This ceremony, marking the opening of the building for service, will be held at the Seventh Avenue entrance, with Ted Fehring, president of the Church League, as presiding officer.

Following the singing of the hymn, Lord, Wilt Thou in This Temple Reign, written by Dr. E. Leigh Mudge of Carmel, the prayer of invocation will be given by Dr. K. Fillmore Gray. After a few words of welcome have been spoken by the chairman, the Director of Religious Education, Miss Nelle C. Wiley, will describe the building in use.

Community participation will be marked by words of greeting from Mayor Horace D. Lyon, Superintendent of Schools, Stuart Mitchell, and Rector of All Saints' Episcopal Church, the Rev. Alfred B. Seccombe. Keys to the building will be presented by the architect, George L. Willox, and the contractor, Harold C. Geyer. They will be accepted by Eugene Harrah, chairman of the church trustees.

An open house in the building will follow, with members of the Church School teaching staff as guides. Punch will be served in the Wesley Room by members of the Wayfarer Guild.

The building, designed by Willox, is of concrete and steel construction and provides classrooms and department and organizational rooms for children and youth particularly. There are many cabinets for storage of materials and equipment, and a small kitchenette on the second floor for use of group meetings. The office of the religious education director is also provided as well as the women's lounge. Part of the unfinished lower floor is the large kitchen which will eventually be used in connection with a new dining room and fellowship hall, which will be constructed in the second unit of the building in another year or so.

Included in the building are gifts in memory of Dr. Alex G. Bolm. Harry Chapman, Dr. Lloyd Kindall, D. E. T. Pattee, Walter Schuster, and Miss Matilda C. Weber. These are marked by a base-relief by Maria Petrie of Jesus and the Children.

Additional finishing of the interior of the lower floor will continue during the next several weeks under the supervision of Edward K. Neroda.

Dr. Field Is Town House Director

At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Carmel Foundation held at All Saint's Parish House yesterday announcement of the opening of the Foundation Town House was made by Captain Archer Allen, president of the board. This house, which is on the east side of Lincoln Street just south of Eighth, is to be used as a meeting place for Carmel's older people. Captain Allen announced the appointment of Dr. Helen A. Field as Town House Director. She is already spending the hours from 10:00-5:00 o'clock there and says she will be happy to see anyone making suggestions or offering help.

Dr. Field spoke of the house itself, telling of plans for the use of its various rooms, one to be a conference room for Mrs. Sarett, the new Executive Director of the Foundation, who is in charge of Home Service, one a reading room where recent magazines and books will be available and one set aside for playing canasta, bridge, chess and other games. The comfortable living room and dining room open on a sunny protected patio soon to be paved and equipped with outdoor furniture. In the living room there will be a fire to sit by when foggy or rainy weather comes. A companionable cup of tea or coffee can be made easily and Dr. Field hopes that some day there will be a never-empty cookie jar to add to the homey feeling of the Town House.

Dr. Field replied to the question of membership that Town House is for the use of members and friends of the Foundation and that anyone who gives anything from a dollar to a million to help support

P.G. & E. Extends Power Line Down Coast To Slate's

Work has started on an extension of the power line south from Ralph Newell's ranch to run into the Slate Springs area along the coast. The Pacific Gas and Electric Company has budgeted the project at more than $70,000 and the schedule calls for completion late this Fall. The line will serve 40 new users.

The three phase, 2000-volt line traverses some of the most rugged terrain along the coast but as company policy, The Pacific Gas and Electric Company attempts to keep the line out of sight up at the base of the peaks. This method takes more construction and maintenance work but does preserve areas of natural scenic beauty so that the traveller will be unaware of man's intrusion.

Five years of paper work with contracts and rights of way were necessary before the actual construction could be started. Residents of Partington Ridge were instrumental in instigating the project, the first steps of which were taken during the war with a line to Point Sur.

BUSINESS ASS'N DINNER

Further discussion of the parking lot problem will be presided over by President Arne Halle of the Carmel Business Association at a dinner to be held by the Association at the Highlands Inn, September 17. Dinner will be at 7:30 o'clock, following a cocktail hour.

Reservations may be phoned to Mrs. Roderick Wilson at Carmel 7-6692, and members are invited to bring guests.

Three Great Books Groups Starting Here Next Week

Three groups of the Great Books program are forming now with meetings to be held at the Sunset School, room 11, according to Mrs. Chester V. Lewis, co-leader of the fifth year group.

Beginners in the program will meet alternate Tuesdays at 7:30 o'clock starting September 16. The first reading will be the Declaration of Independence led by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bradford. The second year group starts Monday, September 22, led by Mr. Frank Jacobson and Mrs. Else Hair, reading the Odessey of Homer. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, leaders of the fifth year group, begin with Euripides' Medea, The Trojan Women and Hippolytus on Monday, September 15.

Further information may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Lewis at Carmel 7-7484.

RED & GRAY GAME TODAY AT CARMEL HIGH FIELD

After two weeks of fundamentals and conditioning, the Carmel High School varsity football squad will get a taste of actual game play this afternoon as the traditional Red & Gray intrasquad game gets football off winging at the Carmel turf. Real game conditions will prevail for today's tussle with league officials, cheerleaders, and both teams anxious to post a win. The Reds, captained by Mike Ricketts and mentored by Don Craig, will give away a few pounds in the weight department but will enjoy a slight edge in speed and shiftiness. Captain Mike will handle the quarterback's chores and will send such good horses as Craig Moore, Howard Roloff, Lou Jaramillo, Chip Buerger, Dick Hiljers, and Dick Ledbetter galloping through the Gray line. Up front, the Reds will rely on ends Bill Gorham, John Hicks, Myron Branson, and Jim Point to snag the aerials and box in the tackles. Tackles Dave Keppler, Bill Rogers, Mike Erwin, and Merle Pitman will furnish the bulwark against the charges of the Gray backfield. At the guards, the Reds have a quintet of nifty blockers in Gerald McDonald, Del Redding, Bill Chalkley, Dave Castagna, and Rus Rooks. Bob McIntire and John Thompson will handle the important pivot position for Ricketts' red clads.

Coach Al Aldwell and Captain Bob Laugenour will counter the spirited challenge of the Reds with a well-knit backfield of Don Leidig, Art Schurman, and Ron Woolverton. Bob Douglas and Warry Masten will add support to the Gray starting backs. Confidence just oozes from Captain Bob when he looks at the linemen under his command. Anchored by the 236 pounds of tackle Bob Lemmon, the Gray forwards show power from end to end. At the flanks, Jim O'Dell, Ray March, Arleigh Jones, Ted Ledbetter, and Craig Chapman make it tough to turn the corner. Tackles Pete Newell, Norman Longaker, Bob Lemmon, and Dan Brosnan have both experience and heft to throw at the Reds. Brad Dixon, Francis Schutz, Denny Johnson, and Hans Petriel are fast enough for the downfield blocking assignments. Snapperbacks Al Knight and Jon Chase are rapidly mastering the fundamentals of the centering position and will give the Red centers a vigorous afternoon.

Today's game is free to the public and promises to provide the usual thrills which are inherent in early-season high school games. Lots of mistakes, fumbles to match, and the rise of new stars to carry the colors for the Padres.

RECORD FOOTBALL TURNOUT AT CARMEL HIGH SCHOOL

The largest turnout in the history of Carmel High School boosted the hopes of the Padres for another successful grid season and taxed the supply room to the utmost to adequately outfit the 72 candidates. More than half the boys in high school greeted coaches Don Craig, Al Aldwell, and George Mosolf as the first schoolday practice was held on Wednesday afternoon. Twenty-seven varsity hopefuls and forty-five lightweight prospects covered the Bardarson Field gridiron. Letermen Mike Ricketts, Craig Moore, Gerald McDonald, Myron Branson, Bob Laugenour, Don Leidig, Bob Lemmon, Brad Dixon, Pete Newell, Al Knight, Denny Johnson, Arleigh Jones, Art Schurman, and Ron Woolverton provided the experience for the varsity crew which also included transfers Howard Roloff, Webb School at Claremont, Hampton Rich, Hans Peteriel, Jim Point, and Russ Rooks. Up from the lightweights and trying varsity ball for the first time are Bill Chalkley, John Hicks, Bob McIntire, Bill Rogers, Chip Buerger, Mike Erwin, Bill Gorham, Dave Keppler, and Jim O'Dell. The Padre varsity appears to be deep up front, not-so-deep at the halfback and fullback positions, but adequately manned at the quarterback post. A tough nine-game season confronts the untried Carmel varsity which could provide a few surprises before the season is finished.

Coach Aldwell's enthusiastic lightweight squad will get its first taste of competitive football next Tuesday afternoon when the Monterey Serra squad scrimmages the Padrecitos at the Carmel field. Lightweight letter winners back for another year with the little Padres include Dan Brosnan, Bob Douglas, Dick Hiljers, Ted Ledbetter, Ray March, Warry Mastin, Del Redding, Francis Schutz, Dave Castagna, Mike Stanton and Merle Pitman. Transfers who have checked out equipment to help the lightweight cause are Dick Jennings, Bob Martin, Billy Powell, Dick McKelvey, Bill McCormack, and West Whitaker. New hands at the block and tackle game are

Dorris Browe

Mrs. Dorris Browe, 47, died last Monday night at a local hospital following a long illness. Mrs. Browe was associated with the Carmel Delicatessen.

Mrs. Browe was born in Selma, California, but had made her home in Monterey at 752 Fillmore Street for the past ten years. She is survived by her mother, Mrs. Bessie Claytor of Seaside; her sons, Elwood E. and Jerry Browe of Monterey, Dorvin L. Browe of Salinas, and Douglas B. Browe of Pacific Grove; her daughters, Shirley Ann and Judith Lynn Browe of Monterey, with whom she made her home; a brother, Grover Claytor of San Francisco; two sisters, Mrs. Amelia Myette and Mrs. Roxie Jensen of Monterey and Carmel; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held yesterday morning at 11:00 o'clock in the Dorney and Farlinger Funeral Home. Burial took place at Cemeterio El Encinal in Monterey.

Tea, Barbecue, And Football Game At M.P.C. Next Week

Monterey Peninsula College social and sports life gets under way September 17 with a tea at student union to welcome new women students. It is sponsored by the Associated Women Students, whose president is Donna Douglas.

The following evening, September 18, at 6:00 o'clock entering freshmen will be honored at a barbecue on the football field, to be followed by a Howdy Dance in student union.

First football game of the season is scheduled on the home field, to be played with Napa on September 20. See sport page this issue for complete schedule for the season.

Sportsmen's Council Asks Public Access To Pfeiffer Beach

Monterey County Sportsmen's Council will petition the County Planning Commission to approve the acquisition of a right of way to Pfeiffer Beach.

Meeting Monday night at Castroville, the council went on record favoring acquisition after it heard a report from the beaches and parks committee of which Hal Boyd of Carmel and Les Borcher of Monterey are members. The committee pointed out that the state apportions $10,000 to each of the counties for the purpose of buying rights of way to state-owned beaches, and that this fund should be used in Monterey County for acquiring access to Pfeiffer Beach.

At the present time, the only means of reaching the beach is a private automobile road that terminates in a rancher's back yard, where it is necessary for the cars to be parked and the rest of the trip made over a foot trail. The owner of the property charges a parking fee.

25 people in the reading room, and you could cut the air with a knife. Everybody was breathing shallowly and looked heavy-eyed. Several of the frailer habitues were slightly blue from mild and, no doubt, chronic oxygen starvation.

If the library has to carry the additional load of the former night school enrollment, Carmel is going to have to buy a ventilating system for the reading room or enjoy the distinction of being known as the city of blue-faced people.

—Wilma Cook

P. S. We must have our fun. But we are serious in suggesting that something should be done about the ventilation in the library reading room. On the other hand, we doubt that the dollar bite will affect enrollment in night school to a disastrous extent. Adult education is so deeply entrenched in Carmel, to the community's credit, that it has become a way of life. The Carmelite will pay his dollar without excessive complaint for the privilege of attending evening classes, but if the dollar is not going to benefit the program, it is a lost, a wasted dollar. Nobody likes to see energetic American dollars, born to work, deprived of their birthright.

When are the governing bodies of this community going to realize that they penalize Carmel by accepting and duplicating, against their better judgment, Monterey's mistakes in policy? —W.C.

K. Prewett, Miller Leaving Pine Inn

This week Harrison Godwin, owner of Pine Inn, announced a change in management.

Kathleen Prewett and Frank Miller who have been associated with Mr. Godwin for the past six years, will terminate their contracts November 4.

Miss Prewett, who resigns as manager of Pine Inn, will return to Carmel after a vacation and be associated with Mr. Godwin in the field of property management.

Mr. Miller, manager of Pine Inn's dining room and cocktail lounge, says that he also will take a much needed vacation before announcing his future plans.

Dudley Nix, well known local restaurateur, will take over as resident manager of all departments.

Mr. Godwin says he regrets the termination of his long and pleasant association with Miss Prewett and Mr. Miller, but adds that Pine Inn will continue to maintain the same standards of excellence and service to the community.

Marion Wellman

Mrs. Marion Wellman, a resident of Carmel since 1947, died Tuesday morning after an extended illness.

Mrs. Wellman, the former Marion Melbe Upton, was born in Butte, Montana, July 2, 1914, and traveled extensively in Mexico. These travels provided the material for several articles which she had published.

She leaves her husband, Whittier W. Wellman, advertising manager of the Pine Cone; her father, George Melbe, and a step-sister, Louise Melbe, both of Vallejo.

Funeral services were held at the Little Chapel-by-the-Sea Wednesday morning.

the work of the Foundation is a member.

The money to run the Town House will come from the same source used for starting the Home Services, the free gifts of people who believe in the work of the Foundation and wish to further its activities. They give not so much to get something from the Foundation, but rather to feel that they are giving assistance to an organization that is providing for the "good living and well-being" of Carmel's older people, Dr. Field points out. For the Town House, "older" means anyone fifty or older, though no one will be asked to give his age.

During the meeting Captain Allen introduced Mrs. Sarett. She said that the Home Service work has proved to be a much needed activity in Carmel during the six months since the Annual Meeting in March when it was started. She will be glad to talk with anyone sixty-five or more who needs help in meeting the difficult problems that sometimes arise as the years roll along. She is always in her Conference Room from 10:00-12:00 o'clock week days where she can be reached by telephone—7-4666.

At the close of the meeting Dr. Field invited all those present who are interested in the Town House to walk the block down the street to sample its hospitality. The fruit juice and cookies served there were just a token of the spirit of hospitality the Town House hopes to offer beginning today.

The Time Has Come .

By Kippy Stuart

Did you ever think of all the cliff-dwellers in the cities, living in apartment houses and hotels, who can never own a tree? And did you ever ponder the idea that those who do own a tree, are specially blessed? Surrounded as we are with towering pines, age-old oaks and a variety of trees, we are prone to forget our blessing and take them for granted.

The casual way we look at our trees was brought home to me the other day with a bang. My home is surrounded with pines and oaks that are indigenous to this locality; no one planted them and no one paid much attention to them. These trees have grown all by themselves to bring glory and beauty to our village. The other day I was fussing in my garden and went plunging ahead without looking for head-room. Something banged me on the head, bringing stars at midday. When I recovered, I looked up and said things to the pine limb that had gotten mixed up with my head.

I indulged in some classic Army cussing and with vengeance started for my tree saw. I'd lop off that limb that was getting too fresh to be allowed to live. When I had cooled down, I stood off and examined the pine and gradually I really did begin to cool off. It was a lovely specimen of our local variety, thriving all by itself. That tree had never asked for help nor coddling; all it asked was to be allowed to live and grace my property. The limb that I had banged (not the other way around), was the lower branch that balanced the entire structure, and if I had sawed off that offending limb, nature would have screamed in protest. Because I had been clumsy was no reason to punish the tree, so I compromised by tying a small white streamer to that limb that in later operations would warn me of "overhead".

Even pine trees need a little help during our long, dry summers. So, in apology to my lordly pine tree, I dug a small depression about the bole and filled the depression with water. I stood there watching my tree drink up that water, grateful to myself for coming to my senses before I had done mayhem to so beautiful a specimen.

Isn't there a verse some-where-or-other that says that only Somebody-or-other can make a tree?

Graves Reports On Camera Junket And Former Carmelites

Don Blanding is all set to take off for a cruise of the south seas in a trading schooner, says C. Edward (Ned) Graves, returning Sunday after a six weeks' visiting and photographing tour of the Oregon and Washington high mountain country.

As he passed through Bend, Oregon, Graves looked up the poet and found him in great health and spirits, cured of the arthritis that had driven him from Carmel to the desert. While in the Bend area, Graves climbed Three Fingered Jack and Broken Top mountains in the Three Sisters region, and rounded out his photographic record of the area. He had already photographed the Sisters some years ago. Continuing on to northern Washington, Graves set up camp in the Mount Baker country, spending 17 days there making color slides of Baker and Shuksan. These will be included in a 10 evenings series of nature color slide showings at Sunset Auditorium this winter, under adult school sponsorship.

At Snoqualmie Lodge in the Cascades east of Seattle, he attended the annual meeting of the

What's the MOST SURPRISING THING about this BUICK?

LOCAL DELIVERED PRICE FOR THE NEW 1952 BUICK SPECIAL

2-door 6-passenger SPECIAL Sedan MODEL 48D (Illustrated) $2518.88

Optional equipment, accessories, state and local taxes, if any, additional. Prices may vary slightly in adjoining communities due to shipping charges. All prices subject to change without notice.

WE'LL tell you the answer to that one—it's the figures on the price tag.

For some reason, lots of people just can't believe they can buy a Buick at a price so close to "the low-priced three."

Maybe it's because a Buick seems so much better and bigger.

Maybe it's because they think Buick has so much more power and room—which is true.

Maybe it is because so many distinguished people own Buicks—which is also a fact.

But the fact remains—if you can afford a new car, you can own a Buick—so let's see what you get.

You get the thrilling power of a Fireball 8 Engine, that's a gas-saving high-compression valve-in-head—as much power as you can get in cars costing $300 to $400 more.

You get as much room as you'll get in cars costing hundreds of dollars more.

You get a ride that cost an honest-to-goodness million dollars to develop.

*You get the silken smoothness of Dynaflow Drive.

You get big-car comfort, styling, durability.

Don't take our word for it. Come in and see for yourself why so many folks are stepping up to this great car this year.

*Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

HI CHATTER

By Susan Nutter

Tuesday summer officially ended for the students of Carmel High School. With many reprets we wiped the last bit of sand from our ears as our constantly cared for tans are silently fading away.

All is not in vain, however, for fall is in the air with the anticipation of football games, school dances, spirited rallys and lots of education.

It all started Wednesday morning with the assembly in the cafeteria then to our home rooms and the passing out of class schedules and initial visits to our future classrooms.

This year to date, there are 328 students enrolled at Carmel High School plus three new additions to our faculty. The new members are Miss Nancy Evans, Mr. Raymond T. Gere, and Mr. Warren Edwards. Miss Mary Evans, the Home Economics teacher, who before coming to Carmel, lived in Los Angeles and taught at Emerson Junior High School. She attended U.C.L.A. Mr. Raymond T. Gere, the eighth grade science, math and English teacher, hails from San Jose where he attended San Jose State for four years, after two years at the Redlands University in Redlands, California. Mr. Warren Edwards is the new boys' vice principal. Mr. Edwards, from Palo Alto, previously taught in Humboldt County and has attended U.C.L.A., the University of California, and Stanford.

There are 111 new students out of the total 328. Of these 111, there are 67 in the new class of 1957 or the eighth grade.

It looks as though we have a terrific year ahead. This first semester is under the able guidance of Student Body President Leslie Doolittle, Vice President Myron Branson, Secretary Carole Byers, and Treasurer Cherie Addenin.

The annual Welcome Dance will be held tonight from eight to eleven. It is free and all new students are especially invited. The dance is given for the student body, the alumni and the faculty. There is going to be a Big Surprise entertainment program called the Ice Breaker. This dance is put on by the student body under the managing hands of our new Commissioner of Social Affairs, Janet Graft. Serving on her committee are: Pat Chedester, Refreshments; Sandra Solomon, Entertainment; Karen von Meier, Invitations; Jim Angier, Decorations; Linda Feek, Clean Up; and Sylvia Heinselman.

Thus ending registration week we are ready to settle down into routine school life. School's not so bad after all.

U. S. Marine Band To Give Concert Here Next Month

The United States Marine Band, on its annual tour, will give two concerts on the Peninsula at the Fort Ord Soldiers' Club on October 17. The concerts, sponsored by the Monterey Kiwanis, will be given for the benefit of the Kiwanis youth fund.

Tickets to the afternoon performance will be sold at reduced prices to students and service personnel. The second concert will be given in the evening.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Narrow Town—Broad Outlook

The wife's cousin Ben, and Belle his bride are back from honeymooning in the Rockies. Took them to dinner last night at the Garden Tavern. Ben told about the trip:

"Went through a town in Idaho that was only 100 feet wide. No kidding! Built into a long, narrow canyon. And it shares those 100 feet with a railroad track that runs right through the hotel!

"To get gas there we had to park right on the tracks. Suddenly Belle screams—'there's a train coming!' But the gas fellow just laughs and says we were there first. Blamed if the engineer didn't stop the train and wait, too!"

From where I sit, it's a good illustration of how people can learn to "think of the other fellow" so that the community benefits. Railroaders and townspeople, Democrats and Republicans, malted milk fanciers and those who prefer a temperate glass of beer—we all have to share the same space. Let's maintain our neighbor's "right of way."

100 YEARS EXPERIENCE
working for a better California

1852—P. G. and E. began as the tiny San Francisco Gas Company

1952—P. G. and E. is nation's most extensive gas-electric system

On August 31, 1852, P. G. and E. was born as the San Francisco Gas Company . . . and soon brought the first gas lights to the West.

The pleasantest memories of our first century are those of helping Californians live better year after year. In homes, in factories and on farms, new and increased uses for low-cost gas and electricity have helped people live more comfortably, produce more efficiently.

During the years to come, too, you can count on P. G. and E. services doing even more of your work . . . and bringing you even more comforts and conveniences at bargain rates.

Along The Trails With The Rangers

POINT LOBOS RESERVE

By Ken Legg

This week's quotation: "There are certain values in our landscape that ought to be sustained against destruction or impairment, though their worth cannot be expressed in money terms. They are essential to our 'life, liberty, and pursuit of happiness'; this nation of ours is not so rich it can afford to lose them; it is still rich enough to afford to preserve them."—Newton B. Drury.

Out on the sand-hill between the cove of that name and the trail to seal rocks one of the most abundant plants is a species of Artemisia which has not the fragrance of Artemisia californica, the common coastal sagebrush. This species (A. pycnocephala) is the only one of three found at Point Lobos which is not highly aromatic.

The color of its ample and feathery-like foliage is characteristically grey-green but in form it sends up many whip-like branches which usually arc inward at the top. This sagebrush which has no common name is in flower now and at this stage it shows its relation to its family, the compositae.

As a matter of fact, the many, minute, yellow flowers arranged in a spike at the top of each stem are not unlike those of coyote brush and other shrubs which belong to the same family. Clusters of these like fat little jugs, show the tip to be pale yellow during the height of the flowering period, but some are already russet and ripening seed.

Explaining sagebrush is always difficult for we have a habit of calling practically everything we see on the desert by this name. Also, the fact that sagebrush is a type of vegetative cover which includes plants of many species does not help to clarify matters.

I believe it would be more correct to refer only to members of the genus Artemisia as sagebrush when talking of a single plant specimen. And, though some Artemisia smells "sagey" it is not sage. Sage is of the mint family which is entirely different, but more of this at a later date.

Federation of Western Outdoor Clubs and will do an article for the Pine Cone on business accomplished at the conservation sessions.

Mrs. Graves, who had been visiting her sister Mrs. Alice MacMillan in Ogden, Utah, joined him in Seattle, reporting that Mrs. MacMillan, who was a resident here for ten years, has a home next door to her daughter, finds pleasure in gardening, and is occupied with painting the Utah scene.

The Graves, junketing down the length of the northeast states paid a visit to poet and onetime Carmelite, Ethel Romig Fuller, who is poetry editor of the Portland Oregonian, and whose latest book of verse, Skylines, brought out last Spring, is enjoying considerable success. She and her husband are living in the mountains of northwestern Washington, with a view of the glaciers of White Horse Mountain. Around her home she has created an exceptionally beautiful alpine garden.

Proceeding home leisurely, the Graves visited friends in Hood River and Arcata, Graves noting that the library he had planned at Humbolt State College, where he was librarian until his retirement in 1945, is finally getting itself built.

Noel Sullivan Announces Phelan Award Winners

Jerome Gavin of San Francisco, David Wise of San Jose, and James Hewelcke of San Francisco were the winners of the James Phelan Awards in Literature for 1952, according to Noel Sullivan, spokesman for the trustees of James D. Phelan Estate.

Gavin received $500; Wise, $300, and Hewelcke, $200.

Edith Cory of Lomita Park was made First Honorable Mention, Robert Thompson of Sausalito, Second Honorable Mention, and Gene Marine of San Francisco, Third Honorable Mention. In addition, a special commendation was given to Patricia Zelver of Palo Alto, Raymond Mathewson of San Francisco, Charles Lumbard of Berkeley, and Alvin Zelver of Palo Alto. The committee of judges consisting of Wallace Stegner, Clarkson Crane, and Allan Swallow passed on the manuscripts submited. This year competition in literature was limited to the field of short story writing.

Competition for the Phelan Awards is held each year and is open to native born Californians between the ages of 20 and 40. The awards were provided for under the terms of a bequest made by the late Senator James D. Phelan to bring about a further development of native talent in California.

Information concerning the Phelan Awards may be secured at 820 Phelan Building, San Francisco 2, California.

Stephens College Exodus

Carmel will be well represented at Stephens College this fall. First to go was Michal Dawn Oberhulse, daughter of the Frank Oberhulses, who left Sunday to take stock of her duties as instructor of psychology and student counselor. Miss Oberhulse attended local schools, received her degree from San José State and her Masters from the University of Maryland. Her cartoons and clever feature writing have appeared in the Pine Cone, and the Cymbal in the "old days."

Edwina Brown, daughter of the Edward C. Browns, also left last week to attend a pre-term Campus Leaders' Conference. Miss Brown is Editorial Editor of Stephens' Life, a Senior Pal in Tower Hall, president of Beta Phi Gamma, journalism honorary, and vice president of Phi Phi Phi sorority. She, too, has been a Pine Cone staff member, conducting Hi Chatter column when she was a senior at Carmel High.

To honor her daughter Beverly, and three of her friends who are just entering Stephens, Mrs. Janice Wood is giving a small dinner next Tuesday, featuring a cake decorated in the school's colors and flying a Stephens pennant. The four girls entraining at Oakland next Friday are: Shirley Johnson, daughter of the Gilbert Johnsons, Joan Kempen, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Kempen, Nancy Bacon, daughter of the Bruce Bacons, and Beverly Wood.

Hot Dogs by the Fish Pond

About thirty members of the cast and the staff of The Women, and members of the Forest Theater Guild were the guests of the Cole Westons at a weenie roast on the shore of their trout pond, Sunday evening, after a long rehearsal. A big bonfire warmed the guests and cooked the food until a cold wind swept the party up to Brett Weston's studio for dancing and more talk and fun.

Wins Stanford Scholarship

One of the outstanding June graduates of Carmel High School is leaving September 25 for Stanford on a University Honors Scholarship which covers the tuition. She is Diana Horne of Carmel Valley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Horne, and she will be joining her sister Barbara who last year was honored as Freshman Queen.

Other members of the Freshman contingent leaving here for Stanford are Sue McCloud, daughter of the Walter McClouds, Marcia Danelz, daughter of the H. J. Danelzs, Sue Hirst, daughter of Jesse Hirst, Gilbert Neill, son of the Clayton B. Neills and Francis (Skipper) Lloyd, son of the Frank Lloyds of the Carmel Highlands.

Paula Roloff to Cal

Paula Roloff is leaving Sunday to enter the Letters and Sciences College at University of California in Berkeley. Paula is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Roloff and graduated from Carmel High School this June.

Demo Meetings

Mrs. Clara Shirser, Democratic National Committee-woman for California, will speak at a county-wide luncheon meeting at the Mission Ranch on October 1. Sponsored by the Carmel Woman's Democratic Club, the luncheon is expected to attract a large group of Democrats and interested voters. Mrs. Paul Low will be in charge.

On October 16 at the Sunset Cafeteria, a candidates' meeting will be held at 7:30 o'clock. Candiidates Will Hayes for Congress, James Arnett for State Senator, Jacobsen and Gill for County Supervisor, and Robinson and Baugh for Municipal Judge will speak; Councilwoman Gerry Smith will preside.

Plans for the campaign, including the establishment of a Carmel headquarters, filled the agenda at a meeting of the Club recently held at the home of Mrs. E. A. H. Watson. Mrs. Else Hair was made publicity chairman and elected to the board.

VALLEY COLUMN

Today members of the Monterey Peninsula Council of Church Women are bringing their box lunches up to the Community Chapel to hear Dr. K. Fillmore Gray of the Church of the Wayfarer in Carmel speak. This is the annual autumn meeting; Mrs. Robert Getz is hostess and Mrs. Bruce Bacon is program chairman.

Last Thursday, the younger set held a Pot Luck dinner at the Tularcitos Fire House. About twenty members of the Pasa Tiempo group were present to enjoy the games and the dancing. Teenage newcomers to the Valley would do well to get in touch with either Don Corona at the Airways Market or Cherie Addennin and then join in the fun.

Thirty members and guests of the Valley Kiwanis say they had plenty to eat at the venison stew party last Sunday night, French bread, fresh Carmel Valley corn, mixed salad and, of course, venison. For entertainment, they had the fish jumping in San Clemente dam and the birds in the air and stories which are described as "not for general publication." Darkness drove them home quite early but they intend having another party in about three weeks.

The Valley road has been so busy this past week with tourists and visitors that the Valley residents have mostly stayed at home and worked hard. Valley merchants report a big, big week end without benefit of special parties or hoopla.

Speaking of the road again, a large turnout is expected at the Upper Valley Advisory Board meeting next Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock in the recreation room of the Robles Del Rio Lodge. The speakers' perorations have been limited to ten minutes but the discussion will no doubt be fast and furious.

WAYFARER CHURCH LEAGUE

With 96 little tots enrolled in the pre-kindergarten department and other departments in proportion, the Wayfarer Church School will begin its new program of character education this month, Miss Nelle C. Wiley, director of religious education, told the Church League, governing body of the Church of the Wayfarer, at the meeting on Monday evening. Miss Wiley and Dr. K. Fillmore Gray, the minister, outlined plans for the next three Sundays, beginning with a special service at 9:30 this Sunday for the children and their parents, and the dedication of the new education building at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon, followed by Open House for the community. Other special programs will be held on the two succeeding Sundays.

More than 60 members gathered in the recreation room of the church for the bountiful 6:30 pot-luck dinner which preceded the business-fellowship meeting, with the president, Ted Fehring, in charge. Reports were heard on the status of the financing of the new building, with all pledges due to be settled by the end of December; on the finishing of the lower floor, which is being done by men of the church under direction of Edward K. Neroda; and on receipts and expenses for the church since the annual meeting in May.

Plans for the year include enlisting of parents in participation, so far as possible, in the program of the Church School, recruiting of more teachers so that the program may be fully carried on, and active participation of every member of the church in some part of the many activities and organizations.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"Substance" will be the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon for Sunday, September 14, with the Golden Text taken from Hebrews: "Faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen" (11:1).

One of the Bible citations to be read in the sermon will be this from James:

"Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world" (1:27).

Correlative passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will include the following:

"The substance of all devotion is the reflection and demonstration of divine Love, healing sickness and destroying sin. . . . One's aim, a point beyond faith, should be to find the footsteps of Truth, the way to health and holiness" (p. 241).

Here's What Council Didin't Do About The Parking Lot

City council met Wednesday, Thursday and Friday last week in an effort to solve the parking lot issue, which still isn't solved.

At Wednesday's meeting they passed a resolution of necessity for a $117,000 bond issue to purchase the Murphy property on Mission and Ocean Avenues for a parking lot and civic center, Councilman Don Craig dissenting. He didn't like the amount of the issue and he didn't like the civic center.

On Thursday night, an unscheduled meeting was inspired by an offer from an anonymous benefactor to take up the option on the lot, retain the Ocean Avenue frontage and sell or lease or both to the city the portion the city wanted for the parking lot.

The city was to write its own ticket, lease and relinquish, or lease and apply rental to purchase over a 20-year period. It was the dreamy offer that the council and Business Association had been hoping for but not expecting to receive. Had it occurred Wednesday night, it probably would have been accepted with joy, but it came Thursday, after four council members had a chance to contemplate the impossibility of putting over, in bond-issue-resistant Carmel, a bond issue which one of their members, Don Craig, had publicly disapproved. They were so thoroughly cooled on lot purchase that they said "no" to this offer though they were informed by their financial advisor Peter Mawdsley that it could be managed without a bond issue.

Friday night, when they were scheduled to hold first reading on the bond issue ordinance, they took no action on the matter but concentrated on finishing off Wednesday's agenda of miscellany. At this meeting Mayor Horace Lyon said it had been proposed that a parking lot district be created, the business area being assessed to carry the cost of acquiring the lot. The council thought this would be the best solution if the Business Association chose to take responsibility of selling the idea to the property owners in the commercial zone.

Carmel Business Association will discuss it when they hold their dinner meeting Wednesday night at Highlands Inn.

Sportsmen Exchange Rifle For Hammer

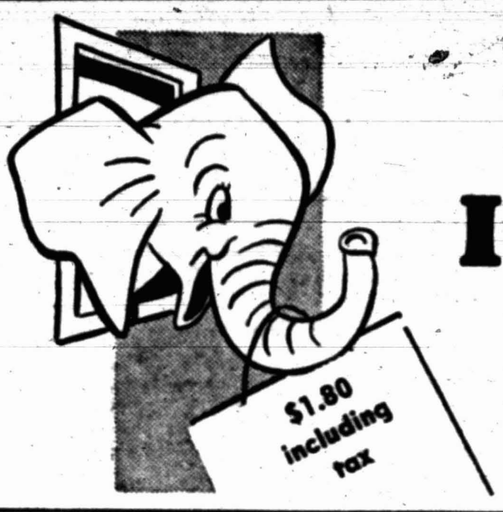

Last Sunday was labor day for the Carmel Associated Sportsmen, Incorporated, when construction was started on the new clubhouse in Carmel Valley. Originally considered as a storage place for equipment, the new building will be adequate for meetings. Under the expert direction of Walt Steufloten, the floor was laid, walls erected, and roof started. Target frames were painted and other facilities built. Plans for the October 5 barbecue were discussed.

The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday evening, September 16, in the Carmel High School Library at 8:00 o'clock. The time has been advanced from Thursday in order to permit club members to start on the High Sierra deer season, opening Saturday, September 20, one-half hour before sunrise. President Hal Boyd and Vice President Dr. G. Ridgley Parker will leave Wednesday for the wilds of Trinity County.
